MAYOR GILCHRIST DECLARES "SUSIE SPENCER DAY" IN GULF BREEZE

GULF BREEZE, FL APRIL 24, 2008: Susie Spencer, Parish Administrator of St. Ann Catholic parish since 1986, resigned for family reasons in January. Though she and her husband, Bob, will continue to have a home in Gulf Breeze, they will spend most of their time in Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

Before they left for the Bluegrass, however, Mayor Lane Gilchrist declared January 22, 2008 at "Susie Spencer Day" in Gulf Breeze.

Citing Susie and Bob's contributions to the city over the years, the proclamation said in part, "Whereas Susie was an important key to our community's recovery from Hurricane Ivan and Hurricane Dennis...helped the city form and give life to the interfaith group called Interfaith Disaster Resources...now therefore I do hereby proclaim Susie Spencer Day."
